THE PACIFIC
Commercial Advertiser.
SATURDAY, MARCH 18.
Foreign Summary.
Dr. Mitchell, in the Free Church Record estimates the number of Protestant converts made in India in 1874 at 7,000, with 5,000 more in Burmah and Ceylon.
An English journal is responsible for the assertion that the Wesleyans in that country are erecting a chapel "on the spot on which Wesley's foot rested at Penzance." The Servian Minister of War has issued an order calling out all men between the ages of twenty and fifty. They are directed to report themselves to the Military Conscription Committee.
The Russian Telegraph Agency publishes a dispatch stating that no alliance has been formed between Russia, Germany, England and the United States in regard to China, but the usual good understanding between those Powers is more emphatic, by reason of the position in which foreign residents of China are placed.
The first trial under the new Public Worship Regulation Act will take place on the 4th of January. It is that of the Rev. C. J. Risdale, incumbent of St. Peter's, Folkestone. He is charged with using lighted candles on the communion table, mixing water with the sacramental wine, using unleavened bread, adapting the service position, wearing illegal vestments, and indulging in illegal processions.
The exploit of Phineas Fogg, in making the tour of the world in 80 days, is soon to be beaten by the regular line. With new lines of steamers, before long the fastest of the world, the calculation is that the trip from Liverpool to New York will occupy 8 days, New York to Fisco 6 days, San Francisco to Hong Kong 21 days, and thence to London 30 days, making in all 76 days.
The growing wealth of Liverpool and of its citizens is exemplified by the sum bequeathed by some of the leading men of the town who died during the past twelve months. It will be seen from the following list that the legacies of eight of these gentlemen represent in the aggregate approximately £240,000.—Robertson, Glasgow, £300,000; James Houghton, £500,000; Richard Houghton, £500,000; Charles Turner, M.P., £700,000; James Tyrer, £200,000; R. L. Jones, £350,000; J. J. Rowe, £400,000; and H. Dawson, £1,500,000.
They were firing a salute on the completion of the narrow gauge railroad, and the mountain sides rang with the echoes from the cannon. A man rushed up to them and said: "For God's sake don't fire any more." "Why not?" asked the astonished shooter. "There's a dead woman lying in the next house," said he. "Well," said they, "if she's dead the noise won't hurt her, and the country must be saved!" "Yes," gowned the man, "I know that, but she's my mother-in-law; and I have heard that guns will awake the dead."

There is a lively discussion at San Jose whether the road to the site of the Lick Observatory, on the summit of Mount Davidson, shall be built by Chinamen, as the contractor to whom the work was awarded, can hardly keep to the terms of the contract without employing cheap Chinese labor.
The white workmen, many of whom have come from long distances in hope of a job, are naturally disgusted with the idea, and Mr. Lick has sent a dispatch to San Jose to the effect that if only Chinamen were employed in the construction of the Mount Davidson road they would not receive a dollar from him.
The firm of Rothschild turned a pretty penny by negotiating the Suez Canal purchase; indeed the rate of commission to be paid them is so high, 24 per cent. on $20,000,000, as to induce, first, wonder, and then reflection. The question suggests itself, why so liberal a rate was asked and granted. In advancing the money no risk was run by the great banking house. Even if the British Parliament refused to sanction the purchase and the canal shares were thrown on Rothschild & Co.'s hands, that firm, if they had not brought down the Rhine conditions, could not have been the loser if necessary, and disposed of it to advantage.
It will be surprising, indeed, if the House of Commons agree to the terms upon which the bargain was conducted without a vehement protest. Had such a transaction taken place in this country the out cry about corruption and jobbery would have been deafening.
The Rev. Dr. Wechsler, a Jewish Rabbi, preached in the George Street Methodist Episcopal Church in New Haven last Sunday evening.
The del. and crowded, and hundreds could not obtain admittance. He spoke of the advances made in Jewish belief, and said: "We have taken down our harp from the willows of Babylon to sing again the songs of Zion. We come before the Lord with thanksgiving that Israel's cause has not languished by any oppression from without or within. The progressive Israelite no longer prays for a return unto the land of Palestine and the rebuilding of the Temple with its sanctuary; neither does he pray for personal Messiah to come. We believe there is no retrogression, but a progress which we must follow. The lofty expressions of the prophets referring to the glorious time of the future are emblematical of our high calling which we have assumed among the nations of the earth. The whole habitable world must become a holy Jerusalem, where justice, truth and liberty are to reign supreme."
